1 After this Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias, and he revealed himself in this way. 2 Simon Peter, Thomas (called the Twin), Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. 3 Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

John 21:1-3

4 Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. ... 6 He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, because of the quantity of fish. 7 That disciple whom Jesus loved therefore said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment, for he was stripped for work, and threw himself into the sea.

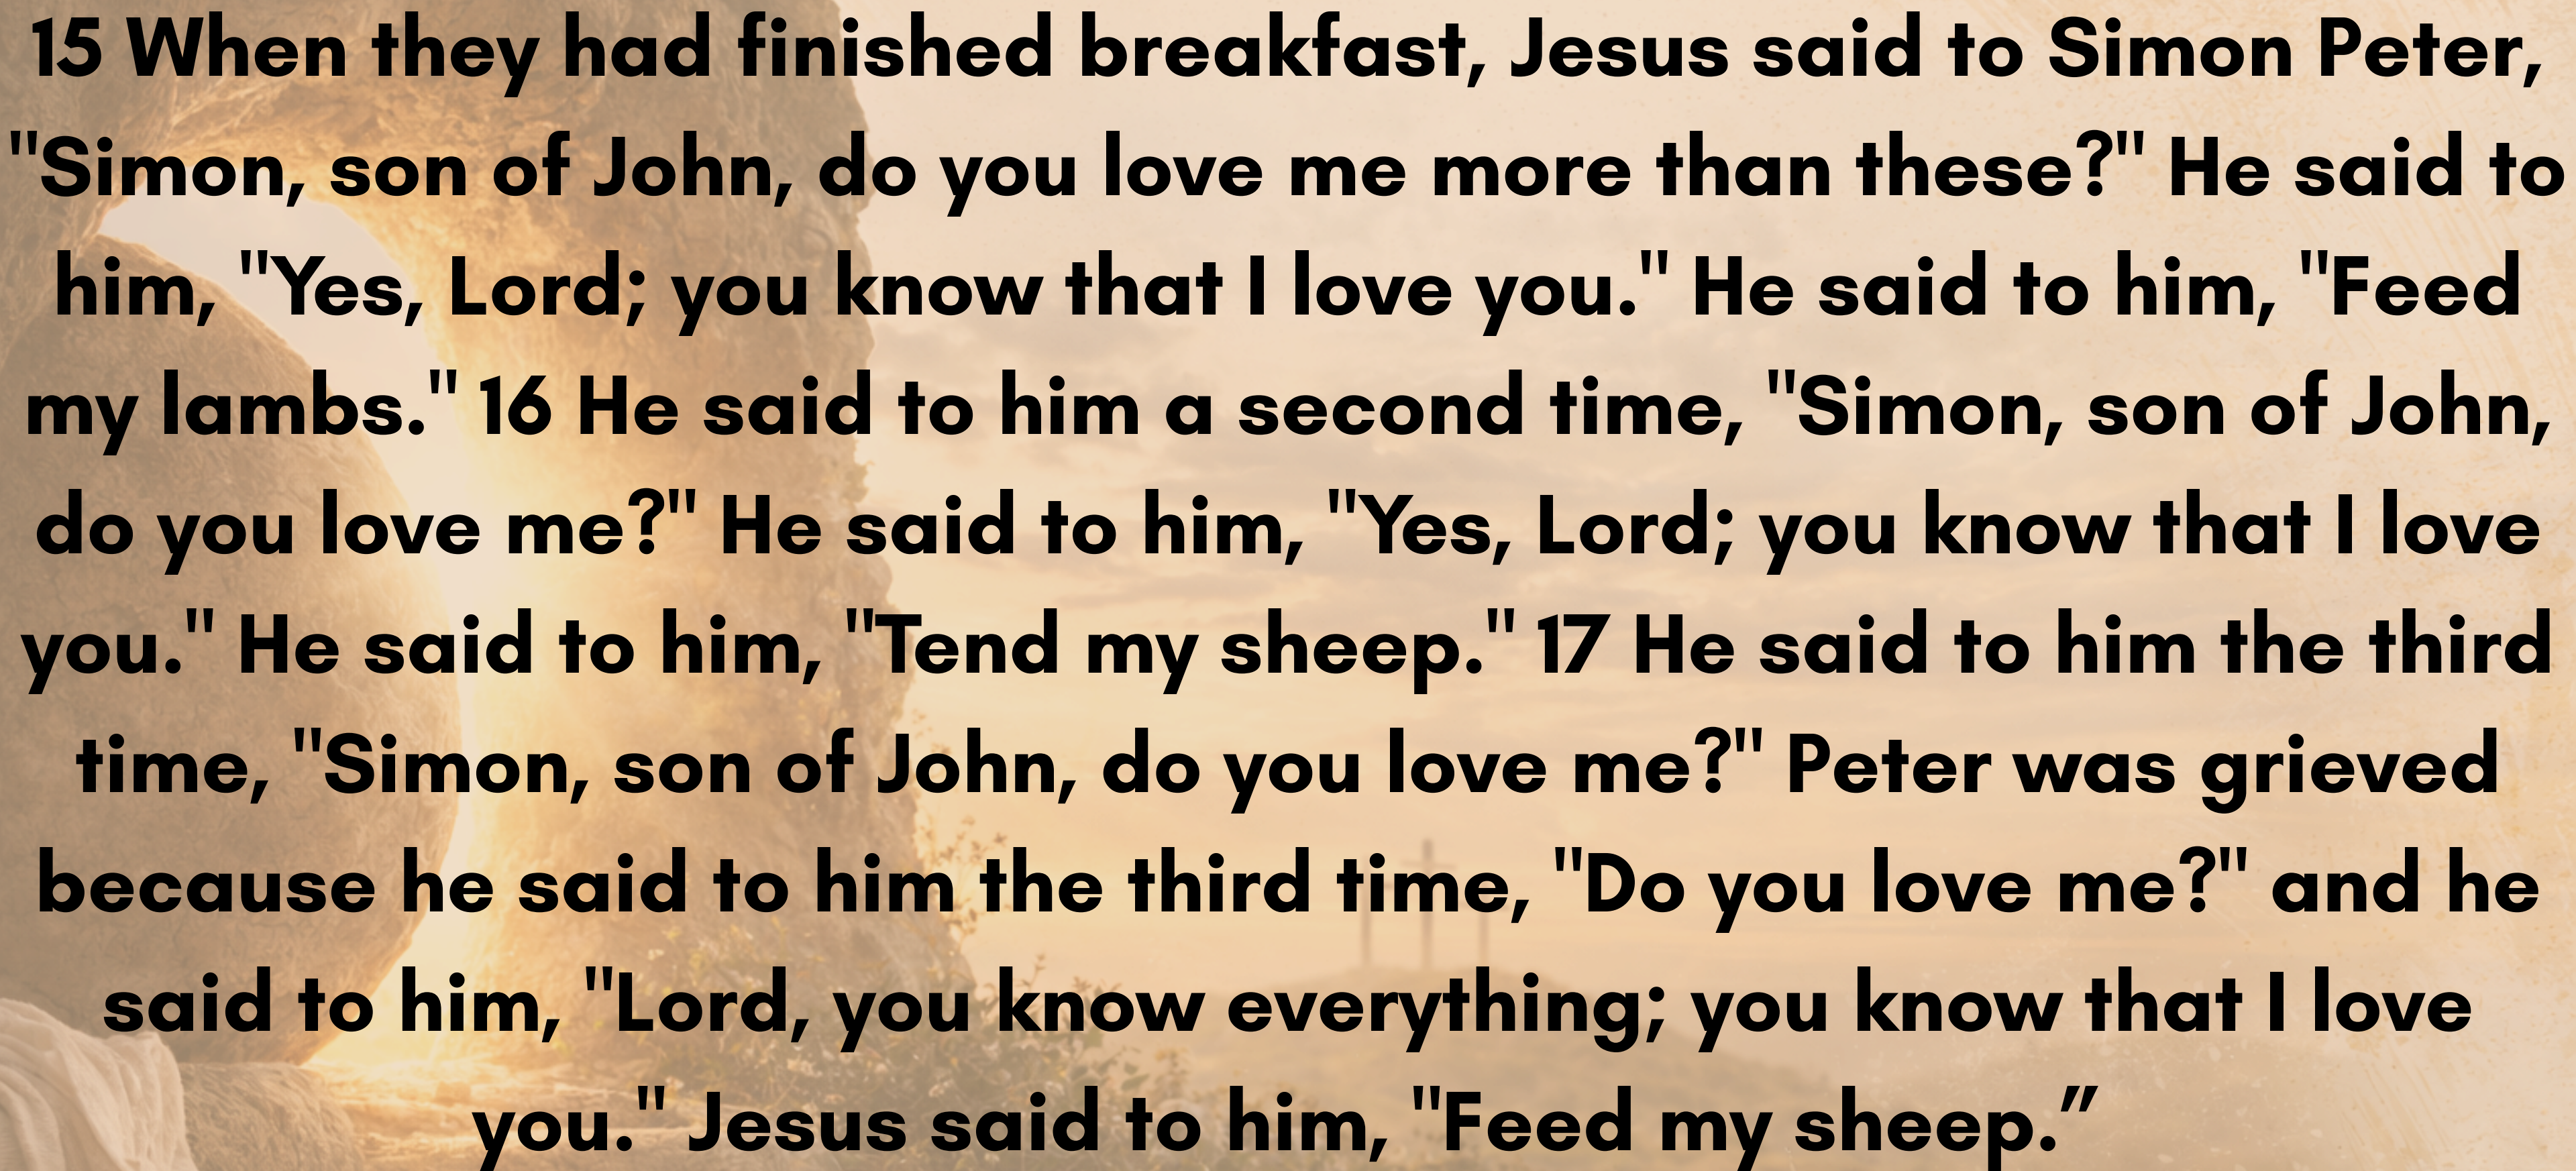

John 21:4, 6-7

A stone archway leads to a bright, sunlit landscape. The arch is made of large, rough-hewn stones. The light is warm and golden, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The background shows a hazy, open landscape with some distant structures or hills.

9 When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire in place, with fish laid out on it, and bread. ...

12 Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. 13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish.

John 21:9, 12-13

15 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." 16 He said to him a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." 17 He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."

John 21:15-17

The background of the image shows a large, ancient stone archway leading into a dark interior, likely a tomb. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of a sunrise or sunset, with the sun positioned just behind the arch, creating a bright glow and long shadows. In the distance, through the archway, a landscape with rolling hills and several tall, thin structures resembling crosses is visible under a hazy sky. The overall mood is one of hope and new beginnings.

A stone archway on the left side of the image frames a view of a landscape. In the background, a hill features three crosses, likely a cemetery. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of a sunrise or sunset, with a bright glow emanating from behind the arch. The overall atmosphere is serene and contemplative.
